A little bit about Horse Creek

The Horse Creek Improvement project daylighted about 2,900 linear feet of the stream that formerly ran in a pipe through downtown. The former pipe overflowed in large storms, ran across developable property, and was in poor shape and needed to be replaced. The downtown revitalization provided the opportunity to open up the stream, provide fish passage, and create a pedestrian-friendly corridor from the Sammamish River to Pop Keeney Field.
